

Viterbi code finds the score for the best sequence ending with each letter at each position. To find the best sequence ending  $j$ , it must look in the sequence to find which letters can transition to  $j$  and then find which legal transition gives the lowest score.

